

TCP & the Greensburg-Decatur County Public Library are partnering on a Book Trailers project. Excerpts from Young Adult books will be dramatized and videotaped. The online release of the performance is tentatively scheduled for April. This is a way to continue with performances during COVID 19 restrictions and a way to promote Young Adult books with Young Adult actors.

Needed: Four Youth Male Actors for 2 Separate Book Trailers

Book Trailer #1 “Bombs and Girls” by Jerry Spinelli

2 boys, ages 9-12 approximately or grades 4-6 for the parts of Billy and Phillip

Book Trailer #2 “GUYifesto: Who We Are” by Darren Shan

2 teenage boys, ages 15-19 approximately for the parts of Guy #1 and Guy #2

Looking for boys who have these qualities:

- Loud & clear voice
- Ability to memorize lines
- Confident stage manner
- Characterization skills; comedic timing
- Stage experience
- Coachable; will listen to & work with the director

Time commitment and rehearsals will be minimal compared to a full play production. There will be 2-3 rehearsals, more if needed. The actors will need to work at home memorizing and polishing the part, showing up for rehearsals prepared to act. The final piece is the day of the videotaping.

If interested, contact Nancy Porter 812-569-7806 or Lori Durbin 812-614-2202. Script requests can be sent to tcpsecretary@etczone.com